

ADOPTION EDUCATION, LLC

P.O. Box 2180

Milford, CT 06460

info@adopteducation.com

www.adopteducation.com

(203) 877-4007

OREGON REQUIREMENT	ADOPTION EDUCATION, LLC COURSE(S)
Possible short and long-term effects of prenatal exposure to alcohol, drugs and poor nutrition.	Prenatal Exposures Malnutrition Fetal Alcohol Syndrome
The effects of separation and loss.	Effects of Stress Attachment and Bonding
The process of developing emotional ties to an adoptive family.	Attachment and Bonding Effects of Institutionalization
Normal child and adolescent development.	Prenatal Exposures Sensory Integration Attachment and Bonding Behavior and Mental Disorders Effects of Institutionalization
“What research indicates about the potential effect physical abuse, sexual abuse, neglect and institutionalization multiple caregivers has on a child’s development.”	Attachment and Bonding Effects of Institutionalization Behavioral and Mental Disorders
Issues related to race, culture and identity. For example, exploring how to honor a child’s ethnic or racial heritage.	Culture and Identity Transracial Adoption
Emotional adjustment of adopted children and their families, including attachment and psychological issues of children who have experienced abuse, neglect or trauma.	Attachment and Bonding Effects of Stress Effects of Institutionalization The History of Adoption in the U.S.
Acculturation, assimilation and, if applicable, the effects of having been adopted internationally.	Travel and Transition Culture and Identity Effects of Institutionalization
In the case of intercountry adoption, the process involved and the general characteristics and needs of children awaiting intercountry adoption.	Special Regional Considerations